

Casually shopping for clothes is fun, but I prefer to shop with a plan to make the most of my time and money. One of the things I do to stay on track in the store and online is to have a printable Clothing Inventory and Shopping List with me at all times.

This can be something as simple as a scrap piece of paper or digital note on your smartphone, or you can download the sheet I use at CreativeSavingsBlog.com/ExpenseResources to stay organized as you build a wardrobe you love.
