

Cash Only	Why is cash necessary for a proposed transaction? Why not another form of payment like a check or credit card?
Secret Plans	Why are you being asked not to tell anyone?
Get Rich Quick	Any scheme should be carefully investigated.
Something for Nothing	A retired swindler once said that any time you are promised something for nothing, you usually get nothing.
Contest	Make sure they aren't a "come-on" to draw you into a money-losing scheme.
Haste	Be wary of any pressure that you must act immediately or lose out.
Today Only	If something is worthwhile today, it's likely to be available tomorrow.
Too Good to be True	Such a scheme is probably not good or true.
Last Chance	If it's a chance worth taking, why is it offered on such short notice?
Leftover Material	Leftover materials might also be stolen or defective.

Whenever you hear any of these expressions, you should act cautiously. A good con artist is usually a master of conversation. They can make you believe almost anything. Since it is easy to get sucked into their schemes, your best defense is to pay attention to clues. In addition, you should never act in haste. Speedy decisions are often regretted.

The Stock Market Is One Big Casino

The advent of on-line trading accompanied the increase in over-all activities that became possible due to the Internet. In 1997 there were 4.1 million online trading accounts; in 2003, there were an estimated ten million. Since young adults have grown up in the technology age, it is no surprise that they comprise the
