

- financial independence, 12–13, 103, 145
 - financial infant, 12, 169
 - financial literacy, xiii–xv
 - Financial Literacy Center, 230
 - financial plan, 251–253. See also budget
 - financial planners, 251–252, 261, 293–294
 - financial wellness, 313
 - financing, 100 percent, 77, 80. See also loans
 - floor brokers, 283
 - forbearance, student loans and, 107
 - foreclosure, 57, 58, 63
 - foreign countries, loaned money and, 170–174
 - forms, sample
 - apartment budget, 108–111, 152–154
 - assets, 6–8
 - budgeting, 26–27, 220–222
 - car budget, 73–74
 - car insurance selection, 84
 - creditors, payment goals, 8
 - debt percentage, 52
 - employment selection, 134–136
 - expenses, 28, 29, 149, 220–222
 - goals, 42, 204–205
 - liabilities, 6–8
 - net worth, 6–8
 - money drivers, 182–185
 - priorities, 30–32, 252
 - savings goals, 42
 - spending habits, 30–32, 187–188, 194, 252
 - wants vs. needs, 149
 - wedding expenses, 215–216
 - Forrester Research, 279
 - Free Application for Federal Student Assistance (FAFSA), 125
 - freedom, money and, 181, 185, 189–192
 - friends, loaning and borrowing money, 168–169
 - FTC (Federal Trade Commission), 10, 65, 173
 - furniture expenses, apartment, 110
- G
- Gamblers Anonymous, 281
 - gambling, 16–19, 189–192
 - college students and, 121, 123
 - Internet trading and, 281–282
 - garnishment, 83, 299
 - bankruptcy and, 306–307
 - IRS and, 141
 - “get rich quick” schemes, 275–278
 - goals, 42
 - credit payments, 8
 - marriage and, 204–206
 - saving for, 42–43, 244
 - graduated payments, 156–157
 - Great Depression, 196, 265–266
 - gross income, vs. net, 36–37, 139–140

