

Chapter 6 What Do You Want to Be 127 When You Grow Up?

In college, you should become focused on preparing for your career. Learn how to make yourself more marketable, what are the “hot” careers, how internships can add to your resume, and salaries you can expect in your chosen field.

Chapter 7 Returning to the Nest 145

The rite of passage to adulthood by moving out and becoming independent can being reversed due to money problems. Learn how it gets to that point, what you can do to stop it, and how to avoid becoming a financial burden on your parents.

Chapter 8 Loaning Money? Call It a Gift 163

Should you ever lend money to or ask for a loan from a friend or relative? This generous act may lead to lost friendships, credit problems for the lender, and money never recovered.

Chapter 9 Mind over Money 181

Money is very emotional—without an understanding of what the driving psychological reasons are behind our money actions, dangerous patterns will never be broken and our rational mind will never win the battle.

Chapter 10 'Til Debt Do Us Part 199

Money problems are the primary reason for arguments in a relationship. Learn how to overcome disagreements, work as a team, and establish complimentary goals.