

"Ralph Wanger's A Zebra in Lion Country is a delightful book. Few managers can match Wanger's investment prowess. Fewer still can share the secrets to their success with such wit and clarity. From novice to pro, every investor should read this book."

—DON PHILLIPS, MORNINGSTAR, INC.

"I'll bet on Ralph Wanger's zebra! His book is witty, a fast read, and above all makes excellent investment sense."

—DAVID DREMAN,

AUTHOR OF THE NEW CONTRARIAN INVESTMENT STRATEGY

"Ralph Wanger really tames the wild beasts of the investment jungle. You'll enjoy his humor, but more importantly you'll understand how to make money in small stocks."

—TERRY SAVAGE, PERSONAL FINANCE COLUMNIST, CHICAGO SUN-TIMES

"A Zebra in Lion Country is excellent, and not just because I agree with it. Everyone should study Ralph Wanger's investment themes covering the next few years in Chapter Six."

—JOHN TRAIN, AUTHOR OF THE NEW MONEY MASTERS

"Ralph Wanger is an outstanding investment professional with two rare and important attributes: humility and a sense of humor. This book will help you understand what he looks for when he selects stocks. Its fascinating accounts of his winners and losers will entertain and educate you simultaneously."

—BYRON R. WIEN, MANAGING DIRECTOR, MORGAN STANLEY & CO., INC.

"From zebras to ugly ducklings, from value to growth, from gambling to investing, Ralph Wanger clears a path for the traveler. With a light and humorous style, Wanger explains heavy and serious truths about securities and markets. The reader will be amused and informed and ready to find investments that qualify for Wanger's ideal of 'growth at a reasonable price.'"

—THOMAS G. DONLAN, EDITORIAL PAGE EDITOR, BARRON'S

"Many mutual fund managers try to sell their wares by making the investment process seem complicated and forbidding. Ralph Wanger has distinguished himself for 25 years by doing the opposite—revealing the simple, often ironical truths about investing, in terms any investor can understand."

—BILL BARNHART, FINANCIAL MARKETS COLUMNIST, CHICAGO TRIBUNE

ISBN 0-684-82970-3

04972450