

INDEX

A

- Actively managed funds, 21, 97
- Advisors, 8, 14–15, 313–315
- Alternative investments, 189–215, 214t
 - collectibles, 211–214, 212f, 213f
 - commodities, 191–206, 193f, 195f, 201f, 202f, 204t
 - hedge funds, 206–211, 208t
 - list of, 214–215
- American Depositary Receipts (ADRs), 129
- Asset allocation, ix–xi, 41–64, 63f
 - correlation analysis, 47–53, 57–61
 - fallibility of, 62–64
 - history of, 41–44
 - rebalancing, 44–47
 - risk and return, 53–57
 - strategies for, xiv–xv
 - two-asset-class model for, 53

(See also specific topics)
- Asset allocation stress test, 278–284, 281t, 283t
- Asset classes, 18–19
 - with low or varying correlation, 95–97
 - with low-cost availability, 97–98
 - range of volatility in, 34–35
 - with real expected return, 94
 - REITs as, 175–179

(See also Multi-asset-class investing; specific classes)

B