

- assets under management (AUM)
 - agency issues, 22, 504–5
 - exchange-traded funds (ETFs), 547–48
 - foundations and endowments, 24
 - 40-Act funds (including mutual funds), 529, 531
 - hedge funds, 562–64
 - Janus, 519–22, 529–31
 - pension funds, 14–15
 - sovereign wealth funds, 4–8
- asymmetric information, 87, 413, 433, 610
- asymmetric risk aversion. See prospect theory or loss aversion
- Athene Holding, 182
- AT&T, 17, 83
- Australia, 4, 13, 14
- average life expectancy, 181. See also longevity risk

- BAB factor. See betting-against-beta (BAB) factor
- baby boomers, 225
- back-end load, 538
- backwardation, commodities, 369–70. See also roll return, commodities
- bad times
 - factor investing, 444, 450–51, 464
 - factor risk premiums and, 622–23
 - factor theory, 193
 - identifying and managing, 621–22
 - are times of high marginal utility, 41, 49, 70, 206, 245, 291
- Bain Capital, 411
- Bank of America, 274
- banks, private equity and, 616
- Bansal–Yaron (2004) long-run risk model, 249–50, 259–60
- Barclays Global Investors (BGI), 551
- bargaining game, 494
- Batterymarch Financial Management, 589
- Bayesian shrinkage methods, 97–98
- behavioral biases, 46–48, 87, 133, 209–11
 - financial advisor to counteract, 127–28, 148
 - impediment to rebalancing, 127–29, 148
 - loss aversion or prospect theory, 62–65
 - momentum premium, 238–39
 - money illusion, 256
 - Save More Tomorrow program to counteract, 179
 - value-growth premium, 232–34
- behavior-based contracts, 495
- benchmarks, 308–10, 313–31, 500–7, 515. See also factor benchmarks
- Bengen, William, 179–81. See also 4% rule
- bequests, retirement and, 186
- Berk and Green (2004) model, 536–37
- Berkshire Hathaway. See Buffett, Warren
- Bernanke, Ben, 273, 281, 293–94
- beta anomaly, 335–38. See also risk anomaly
- betting-against-beta (BAB) factor, 338–39, 340–41
- biases. See also home bias
 - conservatism bias, 238
 - data biases, risk and return, 565–66
 - illiquidity biases, 416–28
 - incubation bias, 544
 - risk and return, private equity, 604
- bid-ask spreads, 333, 429, 431–33, 541, 552. See also market making
- “big swinging dick” utility, 68
- Black, Fisher, 229
- Black–Litterman (1991) model, 99, 109
- BlackRock, 551
- Black–Scholes (1973) option pricing model, 115, 161, 329, 456
- black swans (Taleb), 246
- Black (1980) and Tepper (1981) strategy, 406
- boards, delegated investing, 507–15. See also agency issues and problems
- Bogle, John, 589
- bonds, 271–304. See also municipal bonds; real bonds
 - credit spread (corporate bonds), 295–303
 - factors in, 218–19, 272–82, 287–95, 298–300, 302–304
 - monetary policy and the level factor, 272–84
 - risk and return, 284–87, 295–96
 - sovereign (risk-free) bonds, 477–82
 - term spread (long-term bonds), 284–94, 396–97
- book value, 213 226–27, 316, 412
- book-to-market ratio, 213 226–27, 231, 233
- Boston University, 84
- bounded rational investors, 238
- break-even inflation compensation, 360–62
- Bretton Woods, 348, 371, 480
- Brevan Howard, 583
- Bridgewater Associates, 373, 474, 583
- Brookings Institution, Hamilton Project, 395
- Brownian motion, 38
- Buffett, Warren, 233, 314–19, 323–25, 327, 343, 450, 555
- buy and hold, 120–21, 126–27, 136–37
- buyout funds, 595. See also private equity

- CAL. See capital allocation line (CAL)
- California Public Employees’ Retirement System (CalPERS), 13, 21, 49, 129, 139, 319–21, 511–13, 617
- call option, compensation as, 583, 585–86
- California State Teachers’ Retirement System (CalSTRS), 49
- Campbell–Cochrane view of predictability, 258–59. See also predicting returns, cash flow vs. discount rate predictability
- Cambridge University, 26