

- pricing kernel, 203–5, 231
- Princeton University, 25, 27
- principal-agent problem, 492–96. See also delegated investing
- Prisoner's Dilemma game, 45
- private equity, 26–28, 592–619
  - contracts, 610–15
  - endowments and, 26–28, 615–16
  - factors in, 605–7
  - fees, 612–14
  - risk and return, 597–610
- private equity funds, secondary markets, 432
- Private Equity Growth Capital Council, 608
- probability density function (pdf), 38–40
- pro-cyclical investing, 98–99, 108, 127, 129, 148, 512–14, 517, 549, 564, 596–97, 606, 613
- production-based asset pricing, 232
- productivity risk, 222–24. See also real business cycle models
- Professor's Report to the Norwegian Ministry of Finance, 210, 305, 428, 444, 451, 454, 455, 470, 472, 515, 487
- profit margins
  - exchange traded funds (ETFs), 551–52
  - hedge funds, 583–86, 590
  - mutual funds, 520–21, 542–43
  - private equity, 612–14
- Projected Benefit Obligation (PBO), 21
- prospect theory. See loss aversion or prospect theory
- protecting against stock underperformance, 159–62
- protective portfolio, Merton–Samuelson model, 144
- public market equivalents (PMEs), private equity, 602–3
- public offerings, registered investment companies, 522
- public pension plan underfunding, 19, 150, 179, 182 See also pension plans
- public versus private equity, 594–95
- put-call parity, 298
- put options, 18, 138–39, 297–98

- quadratic contracts, 501
- quadratic programming problem, 81
- quant funds, 556–59, 578, 588, 591
- quantitative easing, 273

- ratchet consumption or ratcheting spending (Dybvig), 177–78, 180, 186
- rational expectations, 348
- rational versus behavioral approaches, utility, 47
- rational theories of the value premium, 230–32
- raw Sharpe ratio, 60
- reaction function, monetary policy, 280
- real assets, 346–85
  - commodities, 364–74
  - real bonds, 352–64
  - real estate, 321–23, 374–84
  - Treasury bills, 287–88, 351–52
- real bonds, 352–64
  - factors in, 355–56, 360–62
  - inflation and, 355–56, 360–62
  - negative real yields, 178, 189, 357–60
  - retirement savings and, 354–55
- real business cycle models, 222–24
- real estate, 321–23, 374–84
  - desmoothing, 423
  - factors in, 321–23, 375, 380–81, 384
  - risk and return, 321–23, 376–78
  - selection bias, 377
  - smoothing bias, 377, 420–23
- real estate funds, private equity, 595
- Real Estate Investment Trust Act 1960, 376
- real estate investment trusts (REITs), 376–81
- real interest rates. See real bonds
- real measure, 38
- real options, 231
- real shocks, 222–23. See also real business cycle models
- real terms, liability hedging, 143. See also inflation
- real yields, 356–60. See also negative real yields; real bonds
- realistic utility functions, 61–70
  - catching up with the Joneses, 27–28, 67–69, 96, 206
  - disappointment aversion, 65–66, 95
  - habit formation utility, 31, 35, 66–67, 96, 177, 206, 245–46
  - loss aversion or prospect theory, 62–65, 472
  - safety first, 62
  - uncertainty aversion, 68–70
- rebalancing, 122–30, 236, 433–34, 436–37
  - agency problems, 129
  - bands, 129–30
  - momentum and, 236
  - short volatility strategy, rebalancing as, 135–41
- rebalancing premium, 144–47
- Reference Portfolio, Canada Pension Plan Investment Board (CPPIB), 456, 460–63, 510–12
- regime changes, 141
- registered investment advisors, 524
- registered investment companies, 523–25
- REITs. See Real estate investment trusts (REITs)
- REITs and direct real estate. See REIT puzzle
- REIT puzzle, 376–80
- relative utility, 68
- relative value, 575–76, 579
- replacement rates, retirement, 176–78
- reputation, 495
- reserve status, safe assets, 479–80
- resource curse. See Dutch disease
- restart option, hedge funds, 585