

Children in foster care

After many years of holding steady, the number of U.S. children in foster care began rising sharply in 1987, and continues to rise.

Hospital cocaine episodes

The drug surveillance network operated by the federal government shows a huge rise in 1987 in the number of emergency room visits involving cocaine.

Growth of regulation

Food and Drug Administration is just one of many growing federal agencies.

Source: Center for the Study of American Business

USA TODAY

Out of wedlock births among black people

After years of decline, the number of out-of-wedlock births among black people began rising sharply in 1987.

Birthrate per 1,000 teens

Juvenile arrest

A declining juvenile arrest rate for murder reversed itself sharply between 1986 and 1987.

Figures 13-3a-3e