

Compensatory off (Comp Off)

Comp Off is a paid leave granted to employees as compensation for working extra hours or working on a weekly off or a company declared holiday.

The comp off is given for the number of additional hours worked. If the holiday or weekly off is falling between travel dates then half day compensatory off should be given.

You may define the period during which the employee can take the comp off. Post that period the Comp Off lapses (not available any more). Typically organizations provide a period of one month to one quarter to avail the comp off.

Mandatory Leaves

The Factories Act as well as Shops and Establishment act defines the mandatory leaves for the employees. The mandatory leaves are granted every calendar year. An employee gives an application to avail the granted leaves and the manager approves the leaves. This practice helps in planning leaves so that business operations do not get affected. The common mandatory leaves as per acts in 2023 are

