

3. Casual Leave (CL)

Casual Leave is provided to handle unforeseen events. It is an unpaid leave. It cannot be accumulated or encashed.

4. Maternity Leave (ML)

This leave is guided by the Maternity Benefit Act 1961.

You need to provide Maternity Leave of 26 weeks to female employees working with the organization for at least 80 days in the past 12 months. This is applicable for the first two children only. The leave is reduced to 12 weeks for subsequent children. Female employees can start their maternity leave 8 weeks before the expected delivery date. In case a child of less than 3 months is adopted, then also 12 week leave must be granted.

5. Leave without Pay (LWP)

No Work!

No Pay!

This leave is simple. No work, No pay. Isn't that obvious?

Why should a leave be created for this? This leave helps in managing operational discipline. It creates a culture of informing business before taking a leave. Then, you can proactively plan to ensure continuity of business.
