

Process of Transfer

The process of transfer has the following steps.

1. Initiation

Request received

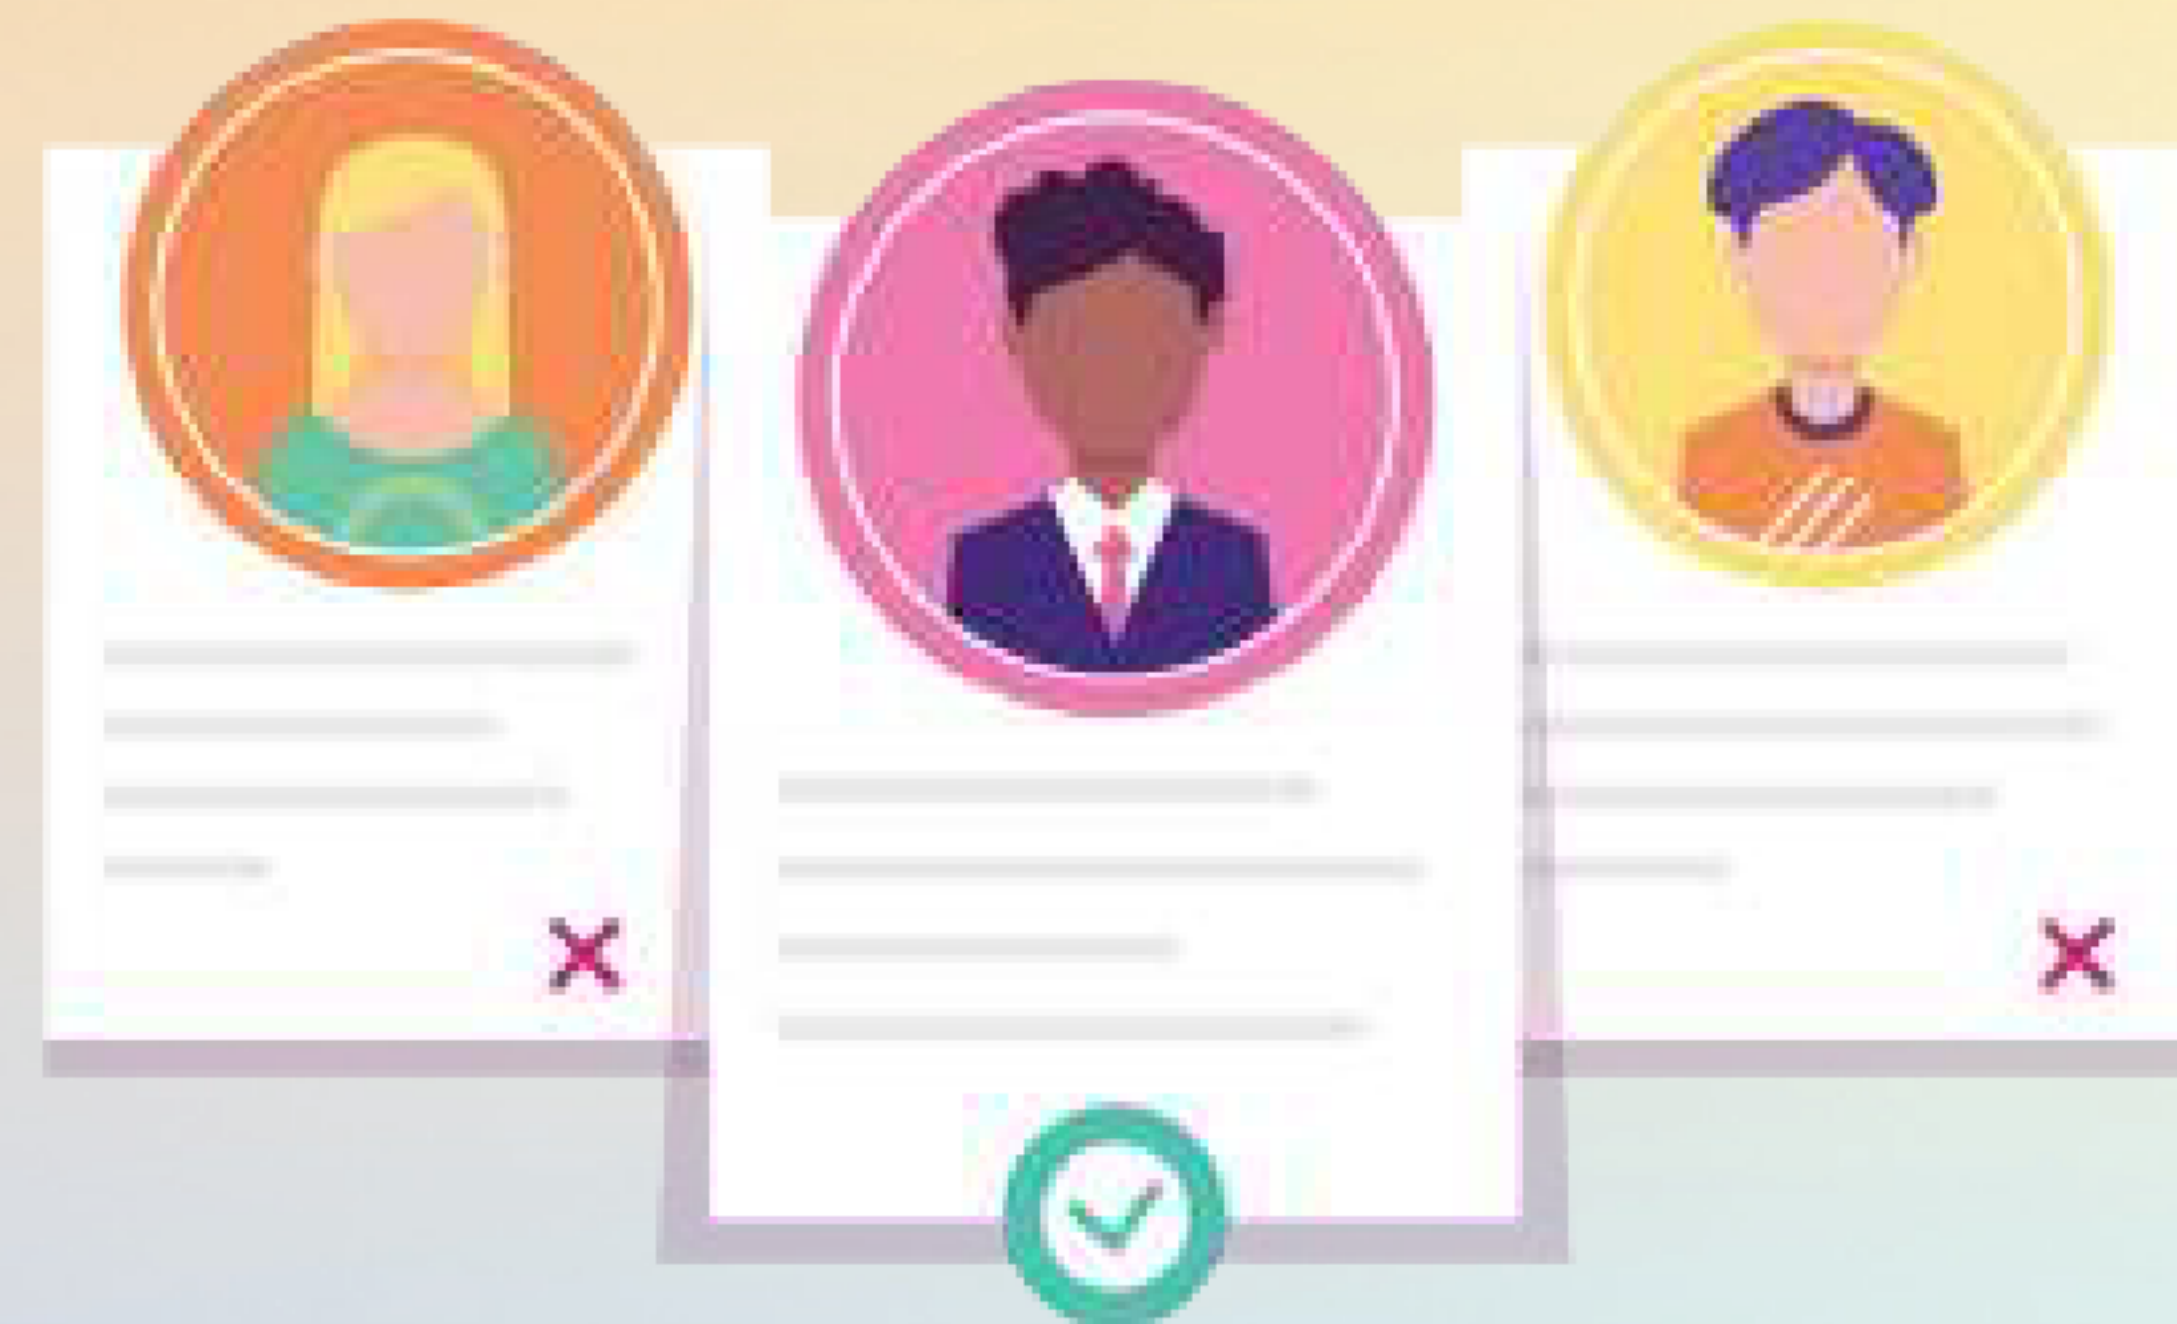

1

It can be employee or organization initiated.

2. Selection

You should evaluate in the abilities of an employee for the new position.

3

3. Approval

You must take consent from both the relieving and accepting managers. Apart from that, approval from the next level manager should be obtained to ensure that the transfer does not violate workforce planning. In case there is a cost involved in the transfer, you must seek approval from the respective business head.

