

Suppose, you are a HR Business Partner. You are sleeping at night. Your phone rings at 2 am in the night. Someone tells you that an employee of yours has met with an accident.

What will you do?

You may do many things. However, first and foremost you must not panic. There is a protocol for handling accident cases. This can be used for accidents in the premises or accidents at the odd times.