

3. Document

Gather the information and document the incident. The incident report should include:

- Location, time and circumstances.
- Severity of injuries and the treatment provided.
- The root cause of the accident.
- File all the statutory reports - primarily EPF, ESIC and Factories Act.

After the AID, you should aid the employee with financial, operational and emotional support. This is the most difficult part of the whole process. It becomes even more difficult when an accident leads to loss of life. Death can happen for reasons other than accidents.
