

In the End

The toughest part is to handle the grief of the family members. You need to be patient with them. This requires listening skills and empathy. You must listen to their grievances and patiently solve them. The way you listen to the grievances of family members of employees. You should put in a mechanism to listen to grievances of employees.

We will discuss the mechanism of managing grievances in the next chapter.

The toughest part of Human Resources is to deal with loss of life.
