

Disciplinary Action

Disciplinary action is a process used by organizations to amend the behavior and performance of employees. It is also known as corrective action.

Disciplinary Action

The objective of disciplinary action is to

1. Put right the inappropriate behaviors and performance

2. Prevent future instances of misconduct

3. Protect organization from liability

4. Provide safe and productive environment

5. Promote fairness and consistency

There are several reasons for which disciplinary actions may be taken.