

Reasons for Disciplinary Action

The reasons for disciplinary actions are categorized and STAMPED in seven groups. These reasons include

1. Safety violations - The examples include

- a. Neglecting safety instructions
- b. Putting oneself or others in danger.
- c. Attending duties under the influence of alcohol

2. Theft and fraud - The examples include

- a. Theft of company property,
- b. Forging documents or providing wrong information at the time of hiring
- c. Falsifying expense reports for reimbursement.

3. Absenteeism or Absconding - The examples include

- a. Habitual absenteeism
- b. Absconding i.e. continuous absenteeism from work without information or any intention to return to work.

