

Data Visualization Techniques

Data Visualization techniques are used to present data visually so that it is easy to understand. The techniques are also called WITCH craft as it includes:

1. Word Clouds

Visual representation of text data where size of each word indicates importance or frequency.