

5. Issue Form 16

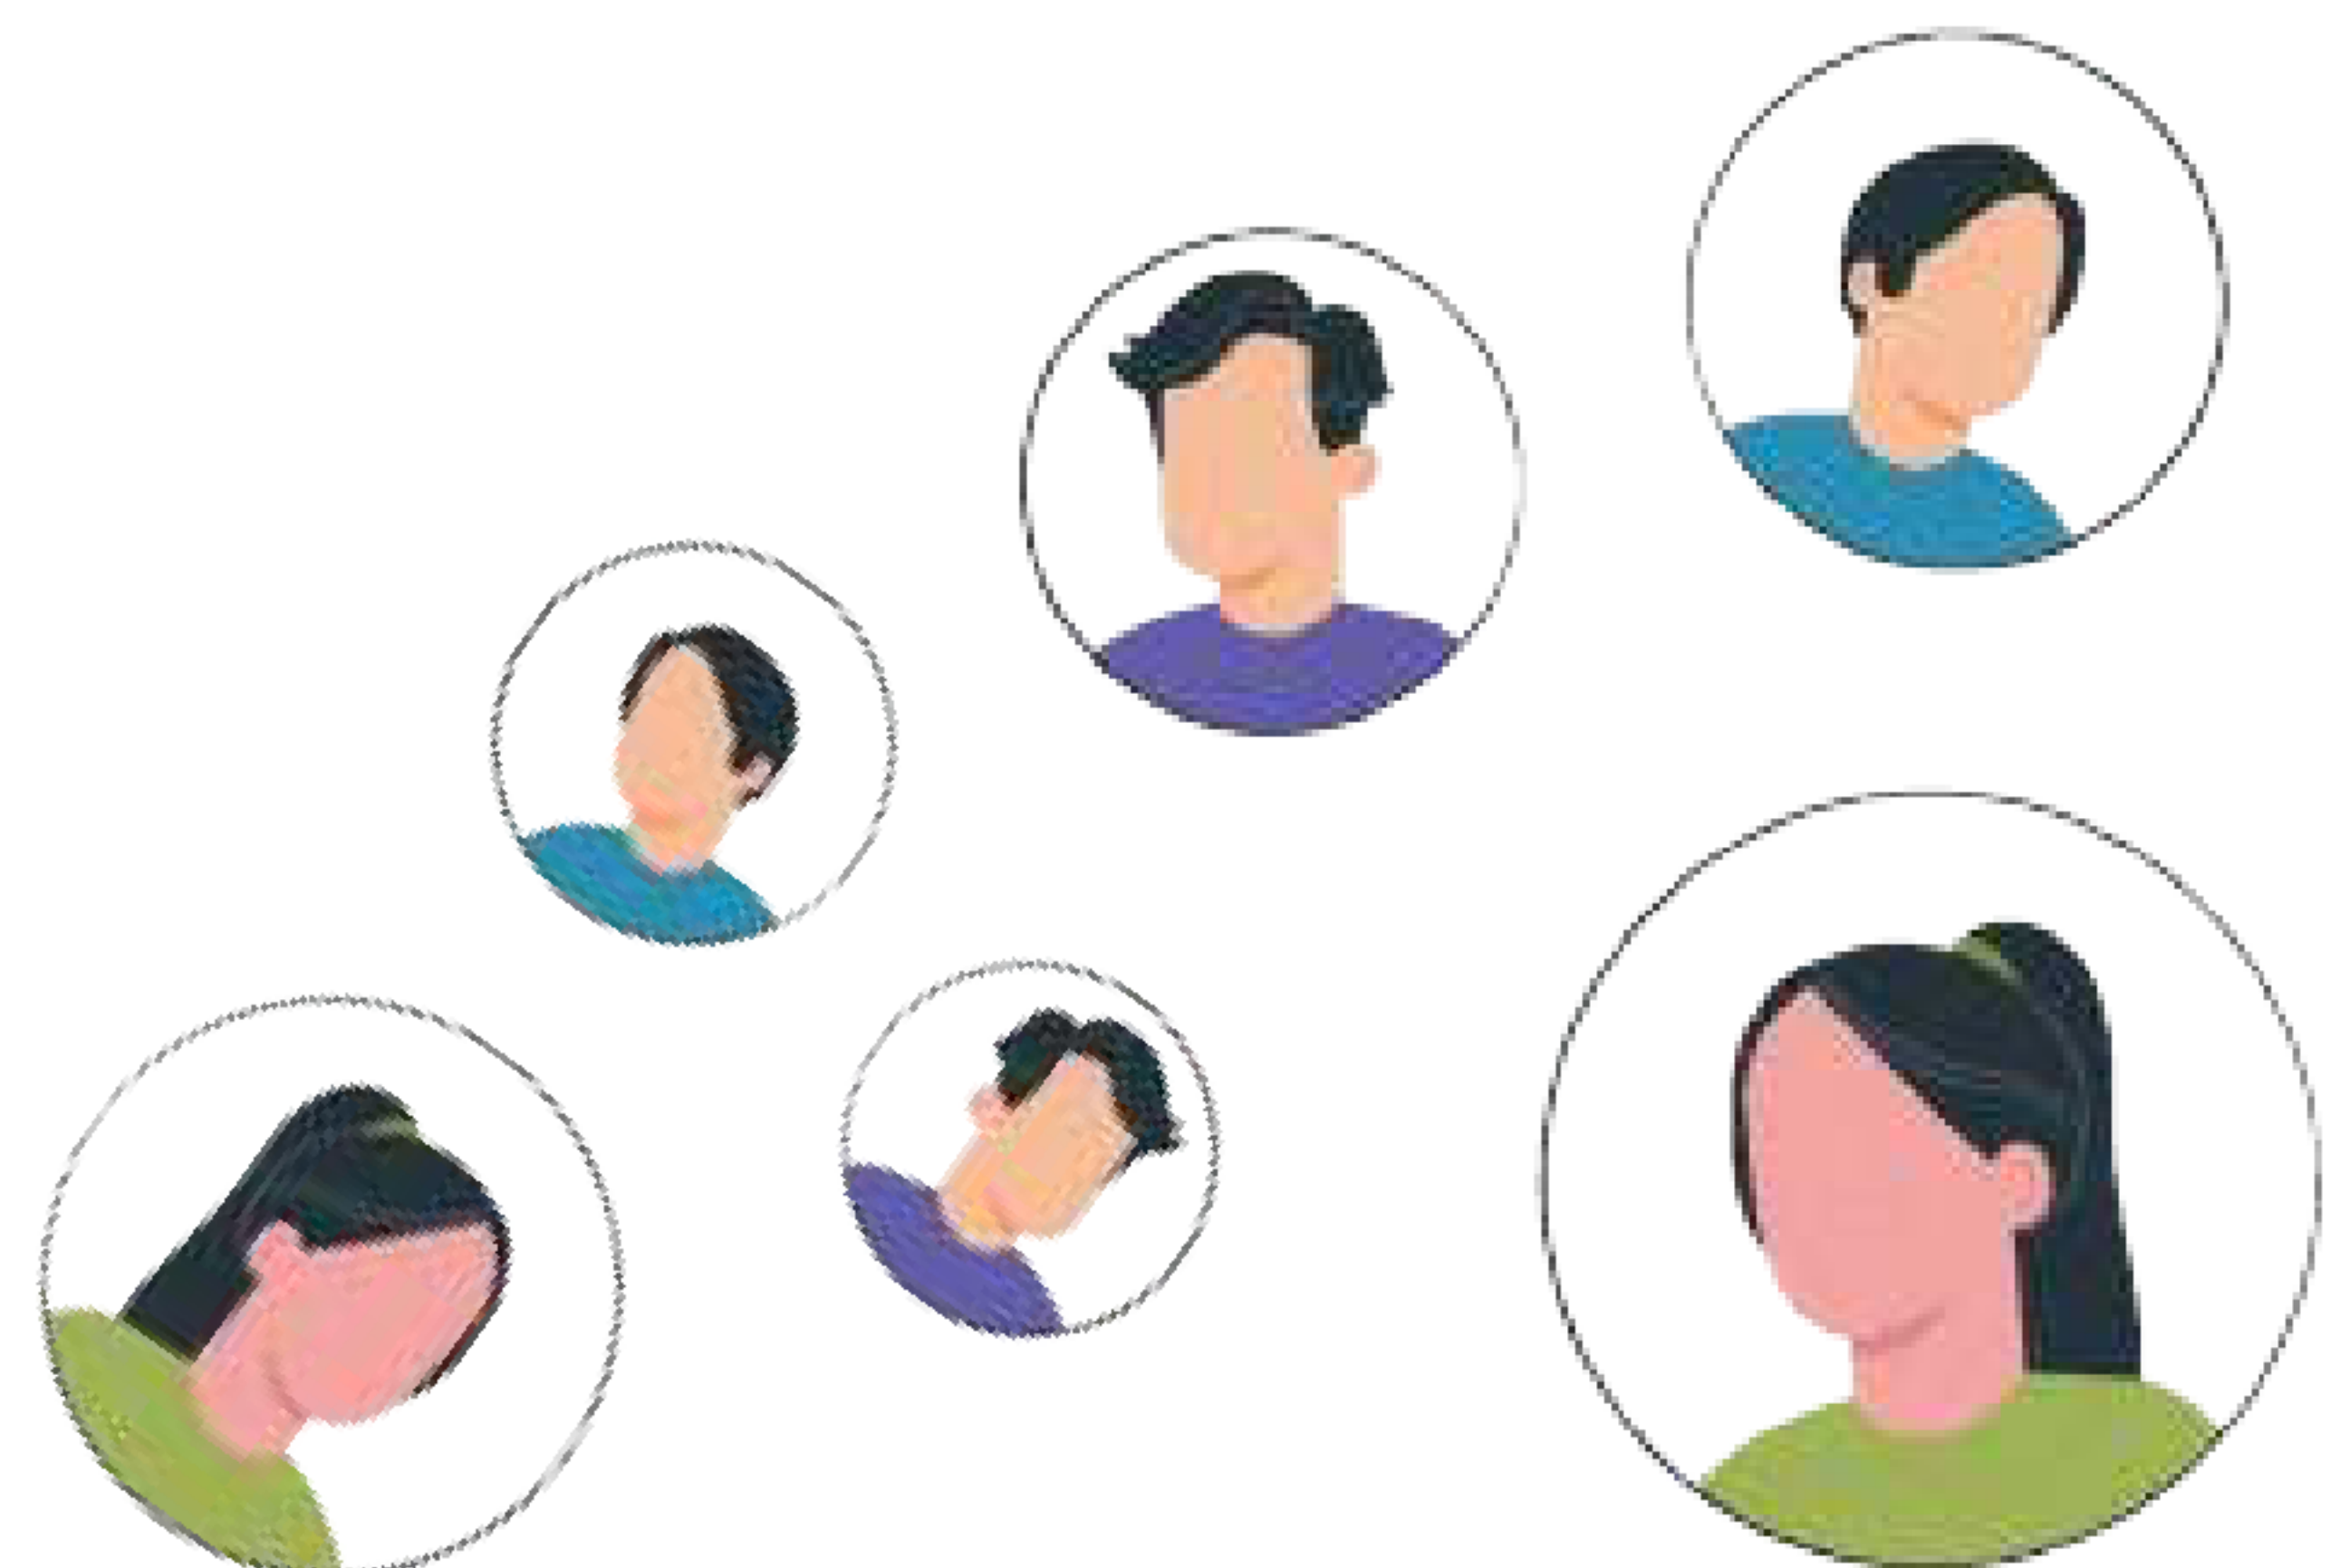

Form 16 is the certificate of tax deducted at source by the employer. As of 2023, it is the duty of the employer to issue Form 16 by May 31st of the Assessment Year. An assessment year is the year that follows financial year. The assessment year for the financial year 2022-23 will be 2023-24. There is a penalty for delaying the issuance of Form 16. However if there is no TDS for an employee, the employer may decline to issue Form 16.

Apart from taxes, the employer is also responsible for paying contributions towards employee benefits.

Benefits Contributions

Benefits by Employer

New Talent

Organizations may contribute towards numerous benefits to attract talent. However there are certain benefits mandated by the government. The organizations make contributions for providing these benefits to the employees. You must know about these benefits as an HR expert. These benefits include: