

2. Motivational factors

The motivational factors contribute to long term satisfaction. They motivate people to do their jobs better. They are also called satisfiers or ARMOR. They include:

Achievement - Targets that provide a sense of achievement.

Recognition - Praise and recognition for achievement.