

You already understand that compensation is one of the key hygiene factors. The compensation may be used as a motivational factor by structuring it right. Before we delve into that, let's first grasp the importance of motivation.

What is the need to motivate?

There are three primary needs to motivate.

1. To attract the talent

2. To retain the talent

3. To make the talent perform

C.

Meaningfulness - Linkage to a bigger purpose.

D.

Opportunities - Growth opportunities for advancement in career.

E.

Responsibility -
Ownership of work.