

What do you remember of your first plane journey?

If you have been on an airplane. You would definitely have memories of your own excitement. The process of entering the airport, obtaining your boarding pass, and boarding the plane. You may not remember the names and faces of the ground staff, air hostesses, or pilots. However, you would have some memories of the experience that their smiles and behavior would have created for you.

