

The same WIRE of welcome, introduction, resource allocation, and engagement is strengthened during this step. The candidate enters the organization ecosystem. Candidate gets the employee code, identity card (boarding pass), and other assets. The candidate becomes the employee. The seat is allocated and the formal introduction takes place with the team and other stakeholders. Generally, background verification (security) is completed during the pre-boarding stage itself.

