

3.

Fans into Advocate

Satisfied customers naturally become brand advocates, helping spread positive word-of-mouth recommendations. To nurture brand advocacy:

- Build strong customer relationships through exceptional experiences.
- Encourage happy customers to share their positive experiences with friends, family, and social networks.

Example: Swiggy Genie's seamless service led customers to share their appreciation on social media, reinforcing trust and brand value.

Loyalty Programmes

Incentives and rewards encourage repeat purchases. Community-driven engagement, such as social media groups and forums, fosters a sense of belonging.

Example: Exclusive discounts, points-based rewards, and referral benefits help retain customers.

