

IKIGAI concept will help to analyse and curate an idea using a balanced approach.

What You Love

This could include industries, activities, or challenges that excite the individual.

What You Are Good At-

Focus on skills and talents that align with market needs.

What the World Needs-

Tie this to identifying problems worth solving in the market.

What You Can Be Paid For-

Emphasize market validation and revenue potential.

Answer these questions and analyse where they intersect. This will help you gain clarity and identify the right path.

