

2. Zomato's Growth Journey

In 2008, “FoodieBay” was launched to streamline food access and save time. Within just nine months, FoodieBay became the largest restaurant directory in Delhi, NCR, and quickly expanded to Mumbai and Kolkata. After two years of success, the company underwent a rebranding and adopted the name “Zomato.”

Zomato's popularity surged owing to the features of its app, which allowed users to browse menus, read reviews, and place food orders from partner restaurants. This led to its expansion across the globe. The transition from Foodiebay to Zomato occurred in January 2010. By 2019, Zomato had evolved into a major international restaurant aggregator, operating in 24 countries and over 10,000 cities worldwide.

