

➤ Marketing Functions

Marketing functions focus on brand positioning, audience targeting, and customer engagement to drive business growth. For content creation, it involves social media promotion, email newsletters, outreach to industry influencers, partnerships with other brands, and paid promotion campaigns.

➤ Sales Functions

Sales functions are for generating revenue and driving growth for the company. This can be done through -

➤ Operations

Operations are vital for managing the complete customer cycle effectively and making sure that the entire process, from initial to post-purchase, runs smoothly.

For content creation, it involves content planning and scheduling, distribution and promotion, engagement and support, and lastly, monetization.

For content creation, it involves-

- 1 Content Planning and Scheduling
- 2 Distribution and Promotion
- 3 Engagement and Support
- 4 Monetization

Outsourcing is a valuable strategy for managing various aspects of a business efficiently and cost-effectively. Outsourcing and automation can be applied to functions such as finance, branding, legal, HR, and admin.