5. Type of Benefits:

We understand your world

Good Cashback
Structure

Good deals with brands

If you have certain preferences, such as international lounge access or deals with certain brands, then those also need to be considered.

- Some cards have a good cashback structure.
- Some cards have a good reward point system, such as HDFC Bank's and Axis Bank's cards.
- Some cards offer really good deals with brands, like ICICI Bank's and SBI Bank's cards.
- Some cards have none.

So, according to your preferences and expectations from your credit card, you can select one.

6. Compare Relevant charges and fees

Depending on the purpose you are going to use your credit card, check relevant charges and fees.

1. If you are a foreign traveller then check forex fees.
2. If you are going to use the credit card to fill fuel, check for fuel surcharge.
3. If you are going to use the credit card to book train tickets then check the railway booking surcharge.
