

HEALTH INSURANCE

Medical emergencies can easily ruin your finances, especially in a country like India where medical inflation is high at 14%.

According to a report, 7% of the population is pushed into poverty every year due to medical debts.

Moreover, with the government schemes being limited and not covering most individual, leaves us with no choice but to pay medical bills ourselves.

Just imagine paying for a medical bill that's more expensive than a luxury car.