

3. Insuring your Family

I'd like to think my dad did a pretty good job at ensuring that his family had adequate insurance coverage. I've seen my grandfather's critical illness, my mother's surgery, and my younger sister's hospitalization for dengue getting paid for majorly by insurance.

Grandparents with individual policies

My dad insured my mum, my younger sister, and me under one family floater plan and my grandparents with their own individual policies.

Parents and Children under Family Floater plan

