

Net worth means the value of your assets after subtracting your debt.

Net worth = Total Assets – Total Liabilities

So, what is the ideal figure then?

So, your Net debt position should always be below 100%, meaning your total debt should not exceed your net worth.

And if you have a home loan, then it should be below 70%.

