

frustration, I'm often asked, "Well, if you could distill advice from your father down to a single sentence, what would it be?" I'd say, "Read his writings and try to live them out." And that is what you get with these pages. Enjoy them.

KENNETH L. FISHER

Kings Mountain, California
July 2003