

healthiest choice for family activities when my children were very young. I don't think learning to compare prices and limiting cereal purchases to whatever was on sale with a coupon harmed them in any way, but there are limits to what your family can tolerate.

You can certainly learn to save money with coupons but it is oh, so easy to become obsessed with it. I should know. I lived and breathed refunds and coupons for several years as a stay-at-home mother of several children. I was lucky to have a husband who not only tolerated, but encouraged my hobby. Always make sure your spouse is on board with any hobby that has the potential to take a great deal of your time.

"I always cut out the coupons, but then I forget to use them." I can't tell you how many people make a similar comment when the subject of couponing comes up. This is a basic truth; you aren't going to use coupons at the store if you don't have them with you. It's as simple as that. Whatever amount of time you choose to spend at this hobby leads to the question of how you are going to organize your coupons. Are you going to be the woman in the
