

taking advantage of them has to be checking the deal-seeking sites quite frequently.

Wondering what coupons will come out next Sunday? Wonder no longer. Shoppers don't have to wait until the Sunday newspaper arrives to see what coupons will be inside. There are websites that list those inserts ahead of time. Looking for extra coupons? For a handling fee, another website might offer a coupon clipping service where you can choose which coupons you'd like mailed to you. And if you want to find the best price on toilet paper, there are websites that will list the weekly sales of major grocery store and discount chains. Need shoes? You can visit one website that will show you where to find your favorite brand discounted and another that will give you online codes to type into the promo code area for an additional discount on top of that. Go through a website like Ebates.com or ShopAtHome.com for a rebate on a percentage of your online spending at participating stores.
