partner at Virtual Capital Ventures and author of The Business Blockchain

Young, Stanford-trained blockchain analyst and investor Chris Burniske has teamed up with financial planning expert and author Jack Tatar to provide the first comprehensive guide to understanding the fastest growing, most exciting asset class under the sun. While many investors are still waking up to the opportunity, these assets have already provided outsized returns, as the overall market is now hovering around $100 billion, which is 10x from a year ago and 100x from four years ago. Collectively referring to these investments as “cryptoassets,” Burniske and Tatar provide a solid background on how the technology arose, what problems it solves, and how, like the Internet itself, it’s going to have a dramatic impact on not only the venture capital process but on investing itself. Don’t think of rebalancing your portfolio without reading this book.
