

payment went up, and I didn't know it, so what I paid was less than the minimum. The credit card company said I was late and they raised my interest rate! It really made me mad!

I make timely payments every month – it comes right out of my checking account to be sure that I do! And they still screw me! My interest rate nearly doubled! I was so angry. I calmed down and then I made my call. They put my interest rate back to where it was, but it is so unfair that they can mess with my interest rate like that. I have always been a good-paying customer. I am just grateful that I knew to check my statement and that I knew to make the call.

I could go on and on, but I hope you get the idea. These kinds of methods have helped people just like you. The stories of success are as varied as the population across America, and each one is a nudge to you to pick up the telephone. Go ahead! What are you waiting for? The simple things in life are indeed often the best, and this simple technique works! Why pay off those ridiculous fees?! You do not have to! Make the calls! And send in your success story!

You Are the Ringmaster Now

Obviously, the banks, the credit card companies, and the entire consumer lending industry do not want you to know that you can save hundreds and thousands of dollars by calling them and making these simple requests. They want you to think that they are the mighty ones, and we, the common people, are weak. It's not true. Even the great and powerful Oz was exposed to be a mere mortal. You have absolutely nothing to lose, so pick up the phone and get started. Rehearse what you plan to say before making the call if you need a confidence boost. The most important thing that you need to remember: Knowledge is power. You have the power!
