Dear (name of collector or creditor):

Our firm has represented [your name] for the last several years. To the best of my knowledge, as of today's date, [insert date], [your name] is insolvent.

[Your name] does not have any material assets. [He/she] [leases a car and is renting an apartment.] According to the [Experian] credit report for [your name] as of [insert date of credit report], there is approximately [$xx,xxx] due to credit card companies. We are also aware of personal loans in excess of [$x,xxx].

As previously stated, [your name] is insolvent.

If you need any further information, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Name of Accountant

{Note to Reader: Send letter with return receipt requested and keep a copy for your records. Insert your appropriate information. If you own your home and/or car, of course, change or omit that sentence. Customize the letter to your situation. Use your credit report to your benefit. State your liabilities. Keep the letter brief. The key is to simply state that you are insolvent.}
