You liked this version better since it was correct and to the point. ChatGPT can do an excellent job of writing almost anything you need. Wherever writing is involved, it can probably do everything.

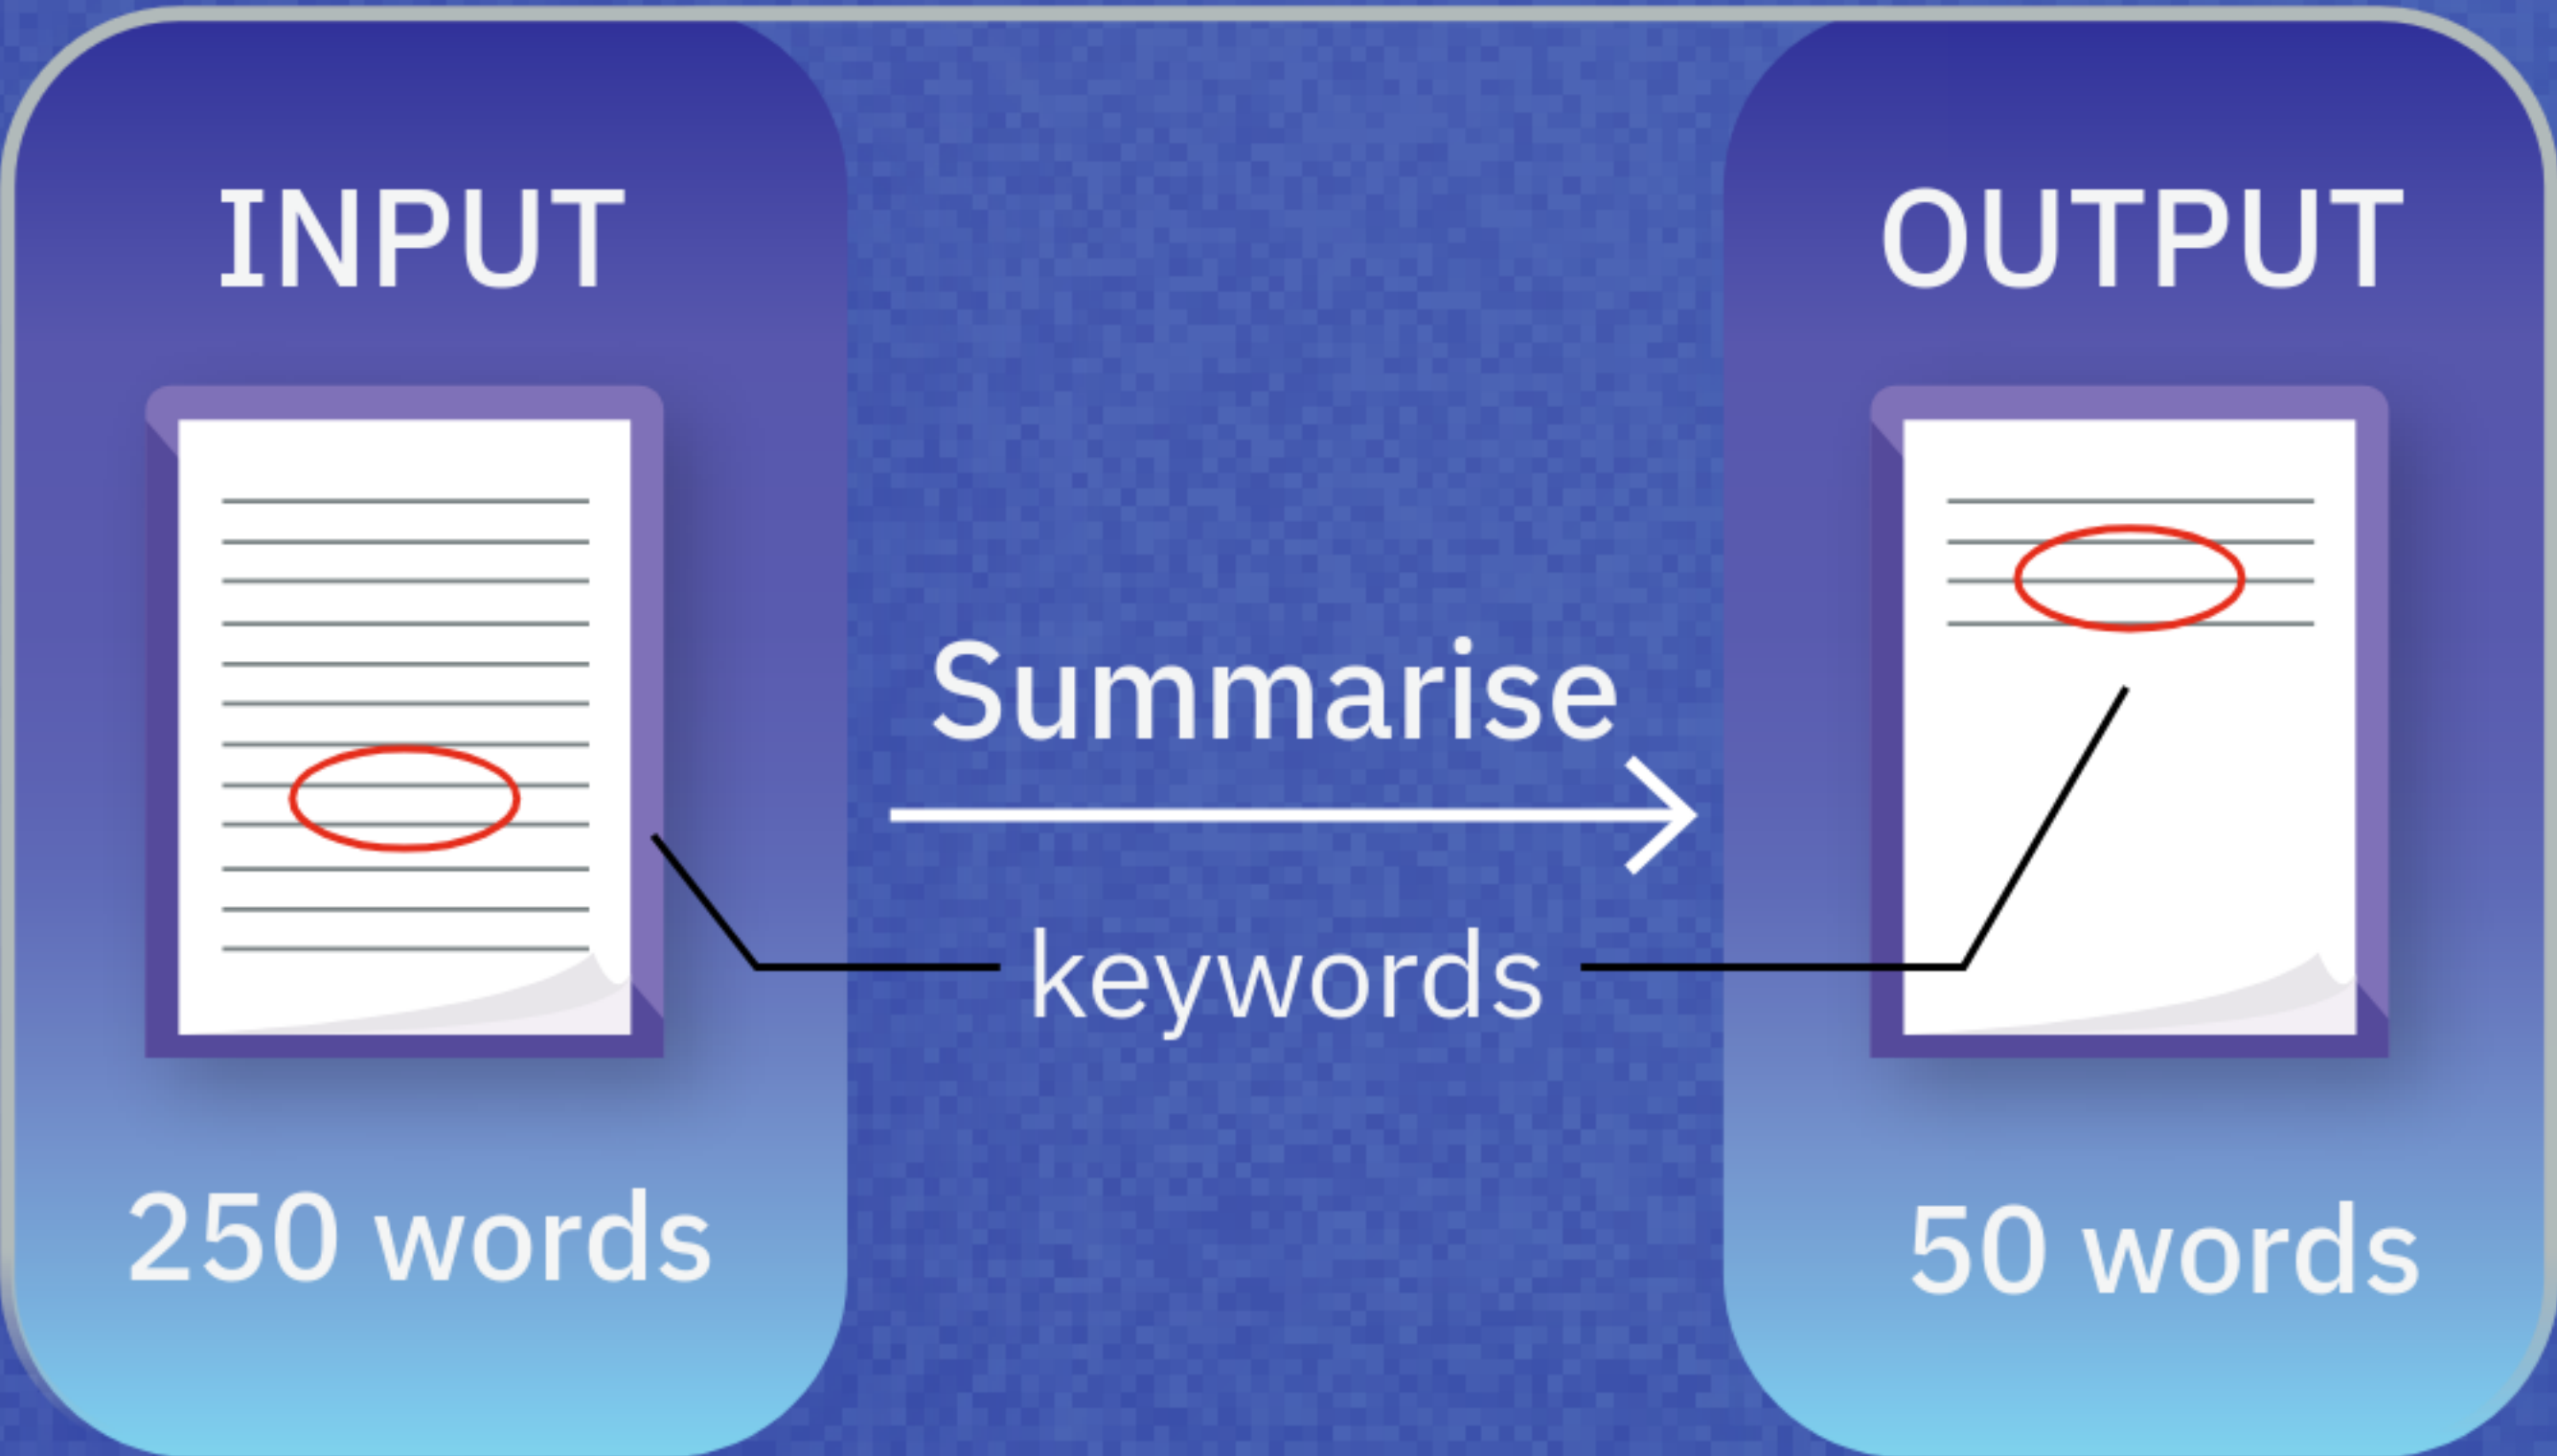

9.3 What can ChatGPT do?

Almost everyone knows about ChatGPT and thinks they know how to use it. But very few people are leveraging its true power.

ChatGPT can summarise vast amounts of data and text, rewrite content in different styles, classify text based on sentiments expressed or any other criteria, and even generate new text for you. You can do all this very easily and not just with ChatGPT.

So, the primary use cases of ChatGPT are:

Summarising Content

Rewriting Content
