

You upload your raw content into your Microsoft Office account, where the Designer offers various themes and layouts for each slide, including images and formatting options. It quickly transforms the basic content into a polished presentation with animations and design elements.

