

They give you approximately 10 images, free of cost, in a day. If you want to generate more images, you can pay for a subscription, but 10 images are good enough.

You get 10 free credits and every image you generate costs you 1 credit. This was the image generated. It is very interesting and realistic as well. So, a dog, sitting on a beach, wearing a sunglasses, with a cup of coffee. How cool is that?

You can also create images in styles like pixel art, 3D, animation, and many other styles.

When you choose the clay art style, it generates an image that resembles Pixar's art style.
