

Gaddis (2002), Braudel (1969, 1990), Bourd  and Martin (1989), Certeau (1975), Muqaddamat Ibn Khaldoun illustrate the search for causation, which we see already present in Herodotus. For philosophy of history, Aron (1961), Fukuyama (1992). For postmodern views, see Jenkins (1991). I show in Part Two how historiographers are unaware of the epistemological difference between forward and backward processes (i.e., between projection and reverse engineering).

Information and markets: See Shiller (1981, 1989), DeLong et al. (1991), and Cutler et al. (1989). The bulk of market moves does not have a “reason,” just a contrived explanation.

Of descriptive value for crashes: See Galbraith (1997), Shiller (2000), and Kindleberger (2001).
