

MAKES OF MOTOR VEHICLES

What types of motor vehicles do millionaires drive? U.S. car manufacturers may be pleased to note that their makes account for 57.7 percent of the vehicles millionaires are driving; Japanese makes account for 23.5 percent, while European manufacturers hold 18.8 percent. What makes of cars are most popular with millionaires? The following are listed in rank order according to their respective market shares:

1. Ford (9.4 percent). The most popular models include the F-150 pickup and the Explorer sports utility vehicle. (American sports utility vehicles in general are becoming increasingly popular with the affluent.) About three in ten millionaire Ford drivers own F-150 pickups. About one in four drive Ford Explorers. Note that the F-150 pickup is the number-one vehicle sold in America. Thus, drivers of pickups have something in common with many millionaires.
2. Cadillac (8.8 percent). More than 60 percent of Cadillac owners drive the De Ville/Fleetwood Brougham.
3. Lincoln (7.8 percent). About half have Lincoln Town Cars.
4. A three-way tie: Jeep, Lexus, Mercedes (6.4 percent each). Almost all millionaires who own Jeeps choose the Grand Cherokee sports utility model. In fact, this model ranks first among all models owned by millionaires. Nearly two-thirds of Lexus drivers choose the LS 400 model. The favorite model of Mercedes-Benz is the S Class.
5. Oldsmobile (5.9 percent). The overall favorite model is the Olds 98.
6. Chevrolet (5.6 percent). Ten different models are represented. The most popular include the Suburban and the Blazer sports utility vehicles.
7. Toyota (5.1 percent). The Camry model accounts for more than half of this segment.
