

Our data indicate that more than four in ten of their daughters who marry will be divorced at least once.