

selection of stocks; and unpopular large companies; yield of stocks (2003)
on. See also specific company

“Dow Theory,”

Dreman, David

Drew, Daniel

Drexel Burnham Lambert

Drexel Firestone Co.

Dreyfus Fund

drug industry

Du Pont Co.

Du Pont, Glore, Forgan & Co.,

dual-purpose funds

due diligence

Dundee, Angelo

Durand, David

e*Trade

“earning power,”

earnings: and advice; average; and bargains; on capital funds; “consensus” about; debt and profits on capital (1950–69); and dividends; and expectations for investors; hiding true; and history and forecasting of stock market; inflation and; and margin of safety; and market fluctuations; owner; and per-share earnings; and performance (1871–1970); and portfolio policy for aggressive investors; and portfolio policy for defensive investors; real;
and repurchase plans; and security analysis; and speculation; and stock selection for aggressive investors; and stock selection for defensive investors. See also “earning power”; per-share earnings; price/earnings ratio; specific company or type of security

earnings-covered test

Eastman Kodak Co.

EDGAR database

Edison Electric Light Co.

Edward VII (king of Great Britain),

“efficient markets hypothesis” (EMH)

Electric Autolite Co.

Electronic Data Systems

electronics industry