

message to conceal the truth: They continue to spew the same failed rhetoric by writing new books, with new titles and new platitudes. Titles like:

Rebuild Your Wealth . . .

Start Over . . .

Recommit . . .

Notice the shift in language, exposing the truth: If the plan is so good, why do you need to “rebuild” or “start over?” If the strategy worked, such words wouldn’t be necessary. For the charade to continue, the gurus need to reinforce the strategy with new books selling the same old shit! And the bigger question: Do you think the gurus need to “start over” or “rebuild”? Of course not! They don’t use the plan they sell! They operate in an entirely different wealth universe not predicated on uncontrollable limited leverage.

CHAPTER SUMMARY: FASTLANE DISTINCTIONS

- Take advice from people with a proven, successful track record of their espoused discipline.
- Many money gurus often suffer from a Paradox of Practice; they teach one wealth equation while getting rich in another. They’re not rich from their own teachings.
