

battered, we're numbed to believe it doesn't exist. Like Santa or a unicorn, we're advised, "Get rich quick is a scam!" I don't blame you, but is it true? Can't you make millions like they say on infomercials?

The distinction is that "get rich schemes" aren't endemic of "Get Rich Quick" but its evil twin, "Get Rich Easy." "Get Rich Easy" shadows its innocent sibling, leaving a trail of victims to be blamed by its brother. "Get Rich Easy" parades in the limelight and on late night television. It lies, deceives, and casts a mirage of vanity that all desire. Just watch this quick-start video or buy this stock software program, and wham, you will be rich in 10 days! No! That's not "Get Rich Quick" but "Get Rich Easy"—and that only leads to a lighter wallet.

Fastlane success stories embody "Get Rich Quick." For people to proclaim "It doesn't exist" is another untruth advanced by ignorance. Don't allow Slowlane losers to corrupt truth. Don't concede. Don't make "That only happens to other people" your truth. Many people have lived "Get Rich Quick" because it was preceded by process.
