

Wipe Your Windshield Clean

*Until we see what we are,
we cannot take steps to become what we should be.*

WIPE YOUR WINDSHIELD CLEAN

While pumping gas into my Lamborghini, a teenager once asked me if he could snap some pictures. “Sure, go ahead!” I replied. After a few various rants and raves about the car, he exclaimed, “I gotta get as many pictures as possible cuz I’ll never be able to afford one of these.”

Do you see a problem in that conclusion? This young man made a choice to believe he would never own a Lamborghini. He couldn’t see beyond his own windshield. Is this a small choice? A treasonous choice? A choice of significant horsepower?

This seemingly innocent choice of perception has the excruciating horsepower of treason. It is acrippler of dreams. The teen’s choice of perception was poor, and because of it, it would forever lead him to mediocre results. His jury had already deliberated, and the verdict was in: An extravagant car would be always “out of his league,” and therefore, his choices would reflect that mindset. Unfortunately, he didn’t understand the debilitating effect of being clouded to our own self-constructed windshield into the world.

THE CHOICE OF PERCEPTION

In the last chapter, we discussed choices and their impact on your life. Thus far it’s been all about choices of action—physical actions that produce consequences. However, if you look deeper, what causes those actions? What motivates you to act and choose? We have two types of choices:
