

visualize your goal moving closer. You get a daily reminder. Certainly you won't accumulate 560 million pennies in this fashion, but the objective is repetitive progress toward a seemingly distant goal. Second, it forces you to evaluate: Have you applied pressure to that goal, or is your change bucket the only weapon in your arsenal? Are you pursuing a Fastlane business or still confined to a job? The third purpose is to change your relationship with money. If you are serious about a money system, you're going to need a big shift in your beliefs about money. What is money to you? A medium to get the latest World of Warcraft release? Or the soldiers for your army of freedom fighters?

The final step is to fund your money system at a brokerage firm. Designate an account that represents your money system. Typically, most brokerage accounts require a minimum $1,000 deposit. If you already have an account, pick an income fund that yields at least 5% yearly and move the funds there. Or alternatively, you can open a trading account and leverage cheaper and regularly traded Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs) instead of a traditional mutual fund. Here are the brokerage houses I recommend to fund your actual account.

- 1) Fidelity (Fidelity.com/1-800-FIDELITY)
- 2) Vanguard (Vanguard.com/1-877-662-7447)
- 3) T. Rowe Price (TRowePrice.com/1-800-638-5660)
- 4) TD Ameritrade (TD Ameritrade.com/1-800-454-9272)

If you don't have $1,000 to fund the account, you can do it once you hit the $1,000 milestone. Your change bucket should yield about $500 per year. With an actual account, you can witness the real-time passivity of your money system. If you have $50,000 in your passive money system (not leveraged in a Fastlane pursuit) you can literally see your passive income stream every month in the form of either interest or dividends. For example, if you invested in a world bond fund for your money system and it yielded 6.5%, from $50,000 you'd generate $270 per month in passive income, each and every month.

Now, I reiterate, Fastlane wealth is created by the net income and asset value—not by the stock market or compound interest. Your Fastlane business should fund this account, not savings from your paycheck.

THE RULES OF THE ROAD: FINANCIAL LITERACY

After my sister turned 21, she bought her first new car—a Nissan Pulsar. It was her first mistake in the world of finance and my first exposure to the world of financial illiteracy. My sister had trouble making the car payments, and when I asked to read her loan documents, I was floored. I investigated. I asked, “How did you buy this car? How did you negotiate?”

She replied, “I told the dealer I wanted a payment of $399 per month.”
