

Pedestrians Will Make You Rich!

*If you do build a great experience, customers tell each other about that.
Word of mouth is very powerful.*

THE BISHOP IN YOUR CHESS MATCH

When life is tough, we seek the counsel of priests, rabbis, or pastors. They are the “go-to” guys of life’s problems. Yet when it comes to your business, who is your go-to guy? Who is on the frontline with your customers? The bishop in business’s chess match is your customer service, and how you treat the people who buy your product or service. The objective of customer service in any business should serve one function, similar to our men of the cloth, and that is to help, support, and resolve.

MY INTERNAL ROADMAP: MY BLACK BOOK

The Fastlane roadmap was my compass for wealth, but I also had an internal roadmap, and no, it wasn’t my business plan. It was my little black book. Nope, my black book wasn’t a treasure trove of telephone numbers from female hotties but a written record of all complaints, grievances, and issues my business experienced daily. This book has served as my guide for over a decade.

When business owners hear a complaint, most of them ignore it. Most of them pass the buck to an employee and pray the issue goes away. Not in the Fastlane. Complaints are a beautiful thing. They represent free feedback and expose unmet needs in your business. They represent the journey’s road noise.

I logged my customers’ complaints because they provided a kaleidoscope into
