

Finally, the greater number of small-cap stocks compared to the number of large-cap stocks makes it difficult for sell-side brokerages to cover the small-cap universe. As shown in the chart below, the total number of small-cap stocks listed in India is more than ten times that of mid-caps and large-caps.